

She Came Around by Florian Tristan and the Garage Band

This boy's watching her,
Guess they've got a history.
This boy's talking to her,
Girl you're a mystery.

This boy's touching her,
Guess he knows the pretty lines.
This boy's kissing her,
But girl you are so mine.

Refrain:

Now she's dancing all alone,
Never stop and never going slow,
Why is she listening to this shit sound?
Guess she came around.

This girl's watching him,
She knows where his girlfriend is.
This girl's wanting him,
When she shoots she'll never miss.

Refrain:

Now he's dancing all alone,
Never stop and never going slow.
Why is he listening, to this shit sound?
Guess he came around.

Refrain:

Now we're dancing all alone,
Never stop, never going slow.
Why are we listening, to this shit sound?
Guess we came around.
Guess he came around.
Guess she came around!
